

„Colourful Life“: DEICHMANN and Jung von Matt

are starting spring colourfully with an eye-catching campaign

Essen, 23.02.2023

Colours and love of life with every step: Pink, orange, green, blue or glowing red – DEICHMANN's current spring campaign, "Colourful Life", presents the brightly coloured collection with a variety of styles from sneakers through high heels to loafers, making us long for sunshine and warmth. It continues the successful "Love the shoe AND the price" campaign from the autumn/winter season.

DEICHMANN and Jung von Matt are chasing away dull winter with brilliant power colours that announce the arrival of spring. Feminine, courageous, self-confident and one thing above all: colourful. Bright, extravagant looks take high spirits out onto the streets and combine stylish fashions with reasonable DEICHMANN prices. It's a fashionable presentation featuring incredible images, yet a little tongue in cheek. The message: At DEICHMANN, the latest fashionable styles are affordable for anyone, and the prices of the shoes are as incredible as the images in the spot. The slogan "Love the shoe AND the price" picks up on the well-known value for money offered by Europe's largest shoe retailer.

For the current campaign, DEICHMANN is once again cooperating with Jung von Matt SAGA, who are known for their humorous story-telling. The Hamburg agency also conceived and implemented the autumn/winter 2022 fashion campaign. The collaboration focuses on the strategy of further strengthening the public's perception of DEICHMANN's fashion expertise and the value for money it offers. The goal? To enhance the brand's charisma and relevance among more fashion-oriented target groups too.

"We are pleased to be continuing our collaboration with Jung von Matt SAGA and to be tying in with the successful previous campaign", says Sabine Zantis, Chief Marketing Officer at DEICHMANN. "Stay tuned: This spot will not be the last time we show people that you can love fashionable shoes at DEICHMANN that also offer incredible value for money."

The "Colourful Life" campaign can now be seen on TV, as an online video, in social media and at the POS. The presentation includes 20s TVC and cut downs, individual online and social media formats, assets for POS and display banners.
